PCA Long Term Disability Insurance – What is it?

Long Term Disability (LTD) is insurance on a percentage of your monthly income and the benefit is associated with the inability (or reduced ability) to perform the tasks required for your full-time job. As this is long-term disability, the expectation is the claimant will experience a 90-day (or more) loss of salary due to a serious injury or illness requiring on-going doctor’s care. A 3-part claim form (completed by the employee, employer, and physician) must be submitted for review by the insurance carrier, Unum. If the claim is approved, the benefit will be paid based on the percentage provided in the associated LTD Plan (66 2/3% or 60%). Note: For ordained Teaching Elders, salary is meant to include both taxable salary and non-taxable housing allowance.

Post-Tax LTD Premiums

The Enhanced and Basic LTD plan premiums are Post-Tax Deductions (as of January 2015) which is executed by your payroll process for enrolled employees. The concept is “tax me now” making it possible for a disabled employee to receive a maximum percentage of disability payment while unable to work full-time to earn their full income. In brief, this is processed as a taxable “fringe” benefit – taxes are paid on the premiums so claimants may receive the disability benefits tax free.

How is PCA Long Term Disability affected by Social Security?

If you are over 65 and remain eligible for PCA Group benefits through the church/employer here are some other points to know:

- The Enhanced, Basic, and Voluntary plan certificates each state that Unum will not reduce your disability payment by your Social Security retirement income if your disability begins after age 65 and you were already receiving Social Security retirement payments.
- Depending on your LTD plan, there are slight age differences that correspond with the number of months Unum will continue to provide disability payments; however, all three of these plans will pay disability payments up to a maximum of 12 months for those who are 69 and older.

The table below lists some of the “add-on” benefits that come with our Long Term Disability Plans.

World Travel Assistance	Enrollees in PCA LTD insurance	This program helps you obtain quality medical care when you have a health emergency while traveling 100 miles or more from home or while in another country. Cost of Living Adjustment	Enrollees in PCA Enhanced Long Term Disability Plan	COLA is an annual cost-of-living adjustment. UNUM will give a 3% increase to disability payments after the disabled employee has received 1 full year of payments.
Retirement Income Protection	Enrollees in PCA Enhanced Long Term Disability Plan	RIP is the monthly contribution equal to 9% of pre-disability income deposited in your PCA Retirement Plan account (if enrolled prior to becoming disabled); maximum $2,500/ per month.
