Dear Ministry Leader,

As your advocates in ministry, PCA Retirement & Benefits (RBI) is here to guide you and your church through the complexities of financial planning and benefits. As we have all experienced through the COVID-19 pandemic, having access to dependable and expert resources to help us navigate the challenges of church administration is not just a luxury but rather a necessity. We want to help connect you to trusted resources that protect and empower your ministry.

Recently, we received a Ministry Stewardship Assessment Report from Brotherhood Mutual Insurance Company®, the preferred property and liability carrier we recommend to PCA organizations. This report provides a five-year snapshot of our denomination across several important categories, including property health, liability protection, safety and security and more. Although our results were above average, the report showed that there are simple steps that PCA churches and ministries can take to protect against costly and disruptive damage or lawsuits.

We want to make you aware of the free resources available to you and your church through Brotherhood Mutual. The free resources and checklists available through the Brotherhood Mutual Safety Library provide you with actionable risk mitigation measures that you can immediately put in place. You can learn more at brotherhoodmutual.com/resources/safety-library.

In addition to the above resources, we remind you that Brotherhood Mutual has developed programs to assist you and your church with payroll processing. For many of our churches that have volunteer treasurers and administrators handling the complexities of pastoral payroll and managing tax withholdings, the payroll services offered through MinistryWorks® could be the right solution for you. You can learn more about this service and others by going online and visiting brotherhoodmutual.com/ministry-partners/pca-rbi.

It is our sincere hope that you and your church benefit from having these materials at your fingertips.

Serving Him together,
