Applicants must provide a cover letter, resume, and affirm the below statement, returning a copy of this page with their application.

RBI does not discriminate against any person on the basis of race, color, gender, national origin, age, disability, or veteran status, whether in hiring, promotion, pay, or benefit decisions. Nevertheless, as a Christian ministry, RBI reserves the right to hire only those individuals who make a credible profession of faith in Jesus Christ and who demonstrate qualifications for the position being filled. While as a church entity, RBI is not subject to the Americans with Disabilities Act, RBI does not discriminate against any qualified individuals with a disability. RBI will make reasonable accommodations to allow a disabled employee to perform the essential functions of his or her job whenever possible. It is the responsibility of the disabled employee to request an accommodation of his or her physical or mental disability by contacting his or her supervisor.

I have read the above requirements:

PCA Retirement & Benefits

As an agency of the Presbyterian Church in America (PCA), the role of PCA Retirement & Benefits (RBI) is to “Prepare, Protect, and Nurture” ministers, missionaries, lay employees and their employing ministries through the provision of employee benefits, financial consultation and counseling. This is accomplished through providing the benefits and educating eligible PCA ministry partners about them. The benefits include the plans, programs and services provided through RBI, including the PCA 403(b) Retirement Plan, PCA Group Insurance Plans, the PCA Ministerial Relief program and the counseling ministries of ServantCare and Cherish.

Our Vision

We believe the gospel advances and the church thrives as men and women who serve PCA ministries grow spiritually and financially healthy.

Our Values

We Know You: We Understand Ministry Life
We Know How: We Continuously Pursue Excellence
We Care: Relationships Are Our Bottom Line

Our Mission Statement

We guide PCA pastors and ministry workers through the complexities of financial planning and employee benefits, so they and their families are able to live generously in every season of ministry.
